PAB Chair, Larry Ford, called meeting to order at 3:02 pm.

A general discussion on the Granite Hill Cemetery was held. The last survey was discussed, as well as the prior decision to remove the flag due to not being able to follow flag etiquette and rules. The cemetery has been managed by the Parks since the 1960's, however has been a funding issue since removed from the general fund in 2006.

Dick Fowler made a motion to recommend that the Board of County Commissioners review other possible funding sources for the cemetery, Henry Nussbaum seconded the motion, all were in favor and the motion passed at 3:31 pm.

The future of grave sales and cremation walls were discussed, as well as cemetery issues and the future development of the neighboring property known as Dollar Mountain.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:20 PM.

Next PAB Meeting: May 8th at the Courthouse.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sarah Garceau, Parks Director
