NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OF PUBLIC HEARING & WITHDRAWAL OF APPLICATION Josephine County Board of Commissioners

The public hearing of the Josephine County Board of Commissioners previously scheduled for Monday, August 04, 2014 at the Anne Basker Auditorium HAS BEEN CANCELED. The appeal application was withdrawn on August 1, 2014 by the appellant due to the parties reaching an agreement to address impacts & concerns.

ORIGINAL HEARING INFORMATION

OWNER/APPLICANT: James Sigel & Ralph Chiampi

REQUEST: To allow, with conditions, the alteration/modification of a previously approved conditional use permit (firewood processing business). The applicant is asking to move the firewood processing area further away from abutting residential properties to help mitigate noise. The new firewood processing area will be relocated to the north end of TL 400 in a clearing near a private motorcycle track. The existing location will only be used for the storage of firewood inside a proposed covered storage shelter. The applicant requests that certain restrictions listed in the original decision be lifted given the new location of the firewood processing area (e.g. hours of operation, etc.).

LOCATION: 460 Livingston Way

ASSESSOR'S LEGAL: 34-06-32, TL 400

CONTACT PERSON: The planner handling the application is James Black, (541) 474-5421, Extension 5418.
